Look at what the seniors did, the seniors did

Look at what the seniors did!

It took 'em all year!

For as sure as you're alive

Here's the record of '45

Plus some good old Elmhurst jive.

This is the way we go to school

The Seniors
of
Elmhurst High School
Fort Wayne, Indiana present the

Albion

of 1945

This is the way we start our book

So gay'n' merry.

This is the way we start our day

Down in the library.

This is the way we act in classes
We draw, whisper, 'n' read

This is the way we enjoy ourselves
Do we our teachers heed?

This is the way we present our clubs
Through their peppy leaders.

This is the way we picture seniors
For you dear, dear readers.

*This is the way
we start to grow*

This is the way we plane away
And make a lot of messes.

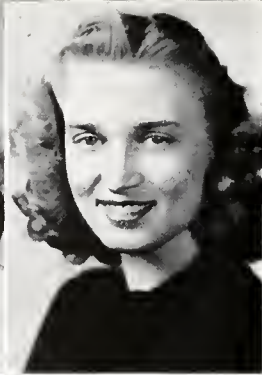

This is the way we slave'n' toil
At our drills and presses.

This is the way

We hope you don't mind one little bit.

Softball Team

With the return of softball once again to the portals of Elmhurst High, the capable Trojans captained by Dick Millhouse, turned out a team that held their own with their opponents.

Several of the boys played with teams during the summer vacation and were ready to give their all in helping Coach Fryback bring a successful team to Elmhurst once again.

The results of the season were as follows:

Huntertown 2	Trojans 7	Huntertown 8	Trojans 5

Ernie Richardson—Ernie, biggest player on the team, was a good defensive player and always garnered a few points. He hit his stride in the Hoagland game and was high point man for that occasion. Ernie is a senior

Bob Rayl—Coming up the hard way by jumping from intramural basketball directly to varsity first five, Punk proved himself worthy of the honor. His unusual canny ability on long one-handed shots often came at just the right time to pull the Red and Grey out of tight spots. Altogether, he scored 105 points to place third on the rostrum.

Dick Schmidt—Dick was the only player on the team serving his second year on the varsity. He was always dependable for a few points and sometimes compiled a two-digit number of points. Being the tallest man on the team, Dick was valuable on rebounding. He was second highest scorer, grabbing 139 points. This was his last year, also.

Dick Edwards—Playing his second and last year on the varsity, Dick could always be depended on to try his best and play for the good of the team. He had only personal fouls called against him and also did a fair share of scoring.

Carl Ray—Playing his last year for good old Elmhurst, Red was the most consistent player on the team. Probably the best ball handler in the outfit, he was also high scorer with 179 points to his credit. His driving and scoring ability served as a sparkplug to the team.

Dick Millhouse—This one of the three Richards on the team was slowed down somewhat by a rather lengthy lapse of time off the team due to doctor's orders. However, he made a grand comeback and reached his peak in the sectional tournament just when all available ability was needed. He is a senior.

Bill Langmeyer—Bill didn't get into many games this year and thus gained the reputation of being a good benchwarmer. In the season of '45-'46, he should get his opportunity and will probably come through.

Virgil Anderson—Andy made up for his unquestionable lack of size with his shiftiness and one-handed sniping. He is a junior and will be valuable next year.

Alvin Busse—Alvin was used more than any other junior on the squad and always played his best for the good of the team and school. He should prove one of the outstanding stars on next year's varsity.

Bob Roehm—Bob ran a close race with Bill for the highest number of splinters due to excessive parking of lower extremities on substitute benches. Bob will likewise prove valuable next year.

Class Journey

"Rip 'em up, tear 'em up, rip 'em up some more,
 _____ 're who we're for."

With such challenging yells, the annual class tourney was held February 28, March 1 and 2. Teachers and students alike enjoyed the free periods. The Junior girls were proud of their champ team, and the Senior boy Boings were mobbed by the Juniors 'cause the Boings won. Yes, they did ! ! !

The Boings went all out for brightness and chose red and yellow as their colors. Junior Featherheads went back to baby days and donned pink and blue. The impish freshman Gremlins wore blue and white. The sophomores went to England and chose Buzz-Bombs as their name and bruised themselves with black and yellow as their colors.

Margie Lou Kumfer and Scotty Parkison, in blue and white striped T-shirts, yelled their lungs out with the help of the rest of the Freshies. The Featherheads' yell leaders were Alvin Busse and Bill Langmeyer. Alvin's legs were some spellers. Little Kenny Meek and Julia Wal-drop led the vim and vigor of the Sophomores. Bob Rayl and Carl Ray showed everyone that the Senior Boings didn't need to be led—just "One-Two-Three" and everyone knew what to do.

Dick Schmidt coached the Boings. Jack List was the mentor of the Featherheads. Duke Doepke and Chic Giffin trained the sophomore Buzz-Bombs. The Gremlins chose Carl Hausmann and Tom Tompkinson as their coaches.

Loretta Watkins was senior girls' captain. Luba Jean McKeeman led the pink and blue champions. Ruby Busch, a mighty Buzz-Bomb, led the sophomores. Joyce List piloted the Gremlins.

Mr. Fryback refereed all the games. Ernie Richardson was time-keeper; Carl Hausmann and Dick Millhouse kept score.

The scores were:

Girls		Boys
Juniors	Juniors (45-8)	Seniors	Seniors (25-18)
Freshmen		Freshmen
	Juniors (21-10)		Seniors (28-27)
Seniors		Juniors
Sophomores		Sophomores
	Sophs (26-9)		Juniors (36-16)
